IMSA

Global Medical Students' Convention

23rd to 25th May, Indore, India

On behalf of the Indian Medical Students' Association, it is our pleasure to invite you to Silhouette 2010, Global Medical Students' Convention in Indore in May 2010.

The Indian Medical Students' Association, the student wing of the Indian Medical Association, is an organization which incorporates all medical students (including Interns) under its aegis. The first of its kind, the IMSA is the unifying body for all doctors- to be, much like its parent body, the IMA. The IMSA is a unique platform which not only interlinks the medical students from across the country, but also promotes them at an international and national level. By networking the rapidly increasing medical fraternity, the IMSA helps medical students from all over India grow in stature, working with the best!

Silhouette 2010, Global Medical Students' Convention, the flagship annual convention of the IMSA, is a purely student led academic event and will focus on burning health issues including HIV/AIDS and Child Trafficking in India and a lot more. The event promises to be one of gargantuan proportions, with over 500 medical students and interns who represent one of the most motivated of India's next generation. This event is being supported by a number of national and international organizations, whose details will be declared on the association website (<http://www.imsa.co.in>).

Delegates can present papers either as an oral presentation or in form of poster presentation. In addition to hearing from Key Note Lecturers and Researchers, delegates will get a chance to participate in workshops which shall equip them with skills, international in class. Delegates will get an opportunity to learn from and share their knowledge with brilliant minds participating from all over the world. GMSC 2010 indeed provides a huge platform to establish networks with delegates participating from across the globe.

It is our pleasure to invite you to be a part of this epic event. We are sure that fellow delegates will benefit from sharing your knowledge and experiences throughout your stay in Silhouette 2010 in Indore.

Thanking You,
